Suffolk County Police Department Community Response Bureau

Be a hero to your community, become a Suffolk County Police Officer. The Suffolk County Police Department is offering an entrance examination on June 13, 2015 (last filling date April 1, 2015). Candidates must be between the ages of 19 and 34 on day of exam. Up to six years of age is deducted from the maximum age for qualified military service. For information and online registration visit JOINSCPD.COM. Special opportunity for Spanish Speaking applicants. The SCPD is committed to diversity and anti-bias policing.

Sign up to attend the Suffolk County Police Department's Civilian Police Academy. The Civilian Police Academy is an award-winning educational program designed to expose community members to police policies and procedures. The goal of this course is to improve communication between the police and the public we serve. This course consists of 16 sessions, one session per week, between 6:30 and 9:30pm, at the SCPD police academy on the campus of Suffolk Community College in Brentwood. The next session starts March 4, 2015. For additional information contact: PO Mitch Savino @ 631-853-7064 or email: mitch.savino@suffolkcountyny.gov

This summer the Suffolk County Police Department will be offering high school students an opportunity to experience the duties of being a Police Officer. The Suffolk County Police Youth Academy is a five day program which includes classroom instruction, physical training, defensive tactics training and presentations from aviation, K-9, emergency service, and other exciting units.
